

137
PILLARS
HOUSE
— CHIANG MAI —

Meetings and Events with a Personal Touch at 137 Pillars House Chiang Mai

137 Pillars House is a stunning 30 suite boutique Hotel with a rich colonial past; built around the original colonial teak homestead which dates back to the early 1800's. It is located in a leafy residential enclave a few minutes' walk from the historical Watt Gate Temple, Ping River and boutique shopping area.

The 19th century directors of the Borneo Company who originally used the original teak homestead as their Headquarters, would certainly be impressed with the hotel's modern meeting facility which can seat up to 30 people. The Drawing Room is equipped with all the necessary business center services and an extensive gourmet food and beverage selection.

The multi-functional space is a perfect venue for a business meeting, training workshop or an elegant provide dinner or function. Outdoor dining is also available in the hotel's beautiful landscaped grounds.
